PORT'S CORNER.

For the Spirit of the Age. HOPE NO MORE.

My fate is scaled, and I have heard What I must ne'er repeat; But tell me how that bitter word, Could fall from lips so sweet? And thou hast reckless torn apart The bands which hope inwove, And left me but a broken beart-The heritage of love.

Those smiles which ence were all my own, Another now will claim; And that soft voice's whispering tone Will sigh another's name. Those smiles-that sigh! how dear they were My sorrowing heart will show,

Doom'd by this hard award to bear,

A weight of hopeless woe.

Would that it were a dream-those hours That once so light and gay, Tripped ever paths bestrewn with flowers; Why have they fled away, And left no trace! save what despair In maddening memory finds, As though the past and future there,

With burning fetters bind. Oh! in the dim and distant length Of days of misery,
This torturing voice will gather strength,
That thou art lost to me; And if a hope be e'er express'd

That time may peace restore,

Despair, sighs in my sorrowing breast-No more oh ! hope no more. Beech Spring, N. C., Nov. 13th.

For the Spirit of the Age Lines .- BY BRATRICE.

Twine for the victor laurel leaves, And bind them round his brow, Fame, wealth and honor all are his, More can he ask for now? Twine this for him, but twine for me, The willow and the cypress tree.

Twine ye for merry maidens fair This myrtle, ivy rose, Of let Time forget a shade to cast Upon them as he goes.

Wreathe these for youth, but twine for me, The willow and the cypress tree.

Wreathe ye for children's dancing curls, Wood sorrel, broom, and crocus flow'r, But tell them not earth's joys will fade Like these within the hour. Twine these for them, but twine for me The willow and the cypress tree.

Twine ye for age the flow'ring reed-The haw-thorn and the cherry bloom-The snow-ball and the clive branch, They point beyond the tomb. Wreathe these for age, but twine for me, The willow and the cypress tree.

For the Spirit of the Age. Song of the Lapland Lover. BY C. IL. CRISWELL.

My swift reindeer, she brought me here Like arrow in its flight, Thine eyes to see, whose glance to me Is like the northern light; And when I go they'll haunt me so, The night I shall not fear; For their bright ray will light the way Of thee my swift reindeer !

Good night, sweet maid! I long have stayed, Yet linger to depart ; Now think my love, on Him above, And bless Him in thy heart! Good night, once more-my song is o'er-I cannot linger here; Ah me! what bliss was in that kiss !-Away! my fleet reindeer!

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. Parents and Guardians are often misled with respect to the cause or source of disease in their sons and wards. Alas! how often do they ascribe to other causes the wasting of the frame, Palpitation of Heart, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, derangement of the Nervous System, Cough, and Symptoms of Consumption, also those serious mental effects, such as loss of Memory, Depression of Spirits or peculiar fits of melancholy, when the truth is they have been caused by indulging in Pernicious but alluring practices, destructive to both body and mind. Thus are swept from existence thousands who might have been of use to their country, a pleasure to their friends and ornaments to society. DR. JOHNSTON'S INVIGORATING REM-EDY FOR ORGANIC WEAKNESS. This grand and important Remedy has restored strength and vigor to thousands of the most debilitated individuals, many who had lost all hopes, and been abandoned to die. By its complete invigoration of the nervous system the whole faculties become restored to their proper power and functions, and the fallen fabric of life is raised up to beauty, consistency and duration, upon the ru ins of an emaciated and premature decline, to sound and pristine health. In April last, on your recommendation. I purchased a one dollar bottle of you for pains with which I have long been afflicted, and made use of it on my trip down to New Orleans, with the most gratifying and beneficial effeets. On my return trip to this city, the Cholera made its appearance among some of my passengers. I made use of the Pain Killer, having no other remedy on board, and to my surprise and gratification found it gave immediate relief! On my arrival in St. Louis, I called on you and got four large bottles, and stated to you my confidence in it as an infallible Cholera Remedy, and remarking to you that I wanted no other Cholera remedy on my boat. I made use of four bottles on my trip to New Orleans and back, for Cholera and some other complaints for which it is recommended, and met with the most astonishing success when I ordered from you six more one dollar bot-tles. Since then I have made two more trips to New Orleans and back, and on my previous trip up I had more than SEVENTY CASES OF CHOLERA. on board, when the PAIN KILLER was immedintely used with the most astonishing results. In all cases where it was used in time, it gave relief, in a very short time; and I can with confidence say to the public, that in all of the first stages of Cholera, when taken in time, it is in my opinion, an infallible remedy! and after a fair trial with it for several weeks, and for four trips to New Orleans and back, and using it for Cholera and for other complaints for which it is recommended, no consideration whatever would induce me to leave port without a good supply—believing it to be a medi-cine that no officer of a boat or any family would be without a single day after using one bottle .-Believing it to be the most valuable family medicine known to the world, for all the different complaints for which it is recommended.
